- (a) of the nature and extent of the breach complained of by the vendor;
- (b) whether the vendor considers that the breach is capable of being remedied by the payment of a stated amount of money owing under the contract;
- (c) whether the vendor considers that the breach is capable of being remedied by the purchaser doing or desisting from doing anything or paying reasonable compensation or both, and of the thing that the purchaser must do or desist from doing or the amount of compensation that shall be paid or both to remedy the breach and the time, being not less than thirty days, within which the actions referred to in this paragraph must be completed;

- (d) of the period within which the purchaser must remedy the breach, if the vendor considers that the breach is capable of being remedied; and
- (e) of the consequence where the purchaser fails to remedy the breach or if the vendor does not consider that the breach can be remedied, the vendor may seek an order from the court to possess the land and rescind the contract.

(2) The fact that the notice served under subsection (1) does not comply in every particular with the provisions of subsection (1) shall not—

- (a) render it invalid so long as the purport of the notice is clear; or
- (b) absolve the purchaser from the consequences of not responding to the notice.

42. Relief against rescission of contract for the sale of land

(1) If the vendor, after serving on the purchaser a notice under section 41, applies to the court for an order for possession of the land or if the vendor has peaceably entered on to the land in order to regain possession under section 39, the purchaser may apply to the court for relief against the rescission of the contract either—

- (a) in the proceedings for an order for possession; or
- (b) in proceedings brought by the purchaser.

(2) If the vendor has peaceably entered on to the land the purchaser shall apply for relief within ninety days after the entry on to the land.

(3) The court may grant relief on such terms as it considers appropriate, including relief for breach of any term or condition of the contract that is not capable of being remedied.

(4) An application for relief under this section shall not in itself to be taken as an admission by the purchaser that—

- (a) there has been a breach of the contract by the purchaser;
- (b) by reason of the breach, the vendor has the right to rescind the contract;
- (c) a notice has been duly and properly served on the purchaser; or
- (d) the time for remedying a breach or for paying an amount by way of compensation has expired, and the court may grant relief without determining any of those matters.

(5) Any, express or implied, term in a contract or other instrument to which this section applies that conflicts with or purports to set aside or negate this section shall be inoperative.

[Act No. 28 of 2016, s. 56]

(3) The transfer shall be completed by the registration of the transferee as proprietor of the land, lease or charge.

(4) The transferee of a charge may require the chargor to execute the transfer for the purpose of acknowledging the amount due under the charge at the date of execution of the transfer.

45. Transfer of leases

On the transfer of a lease, unless the contrary is expressed in the transfer, there shall be implied—

- (a) a warranty on the part of the transferor that the rent, agreements and conditions on the part of the lessee to be paid, performed and observed have been so paid, performed and observed up to the date specified in the transfer or, if no such date is specified, the date of the transfer; and
- (b) an agreement on the part of the transferee to pay the said rent as from the day following the date specified in the transfer or the date of the transfer, as the case may be, and to perform and observe the said agreements and conditions.

46. Effect of transfer on agreement in leases

(1) A transfer from a lessor or from a lessee shall possess all the rights, and be subject to all the liabilities, of the lessor or lessee, as the case may be, expressed or implied in the lease, or arising or which have arisen thereunder, and the transferee shall cease to be under any obligation or possessed of any rights in respect of the lease subject to subsection (2).

(2) Nothing in this section shall affect the rights or liabilities of the lessor or lessee, as the case may be, in respect of a breach of any of the agreements expressed or implied in a lease that occurred before the transfer.

47. Transfer subject to charge

In every transfer of land or a lease subject to a charge, there shall be an implied agreement by the transferee with the transferor to pay the interest, where applicable, secured by the charge.

48. Transfer subject to lease

A transfer of land that is subject to a lease shall be valid without the lessee acknowledging the transferee as lessor, but nothing in this section—

- (a) affects the validity of any payment of rent made by the lessee to the transferor; or
- (b) renders the lessee liable, for failure to pay rent to the transferee, for any breach of agreement to pay rent, before notice of the transfer is given to the lessee by the transferee.

Transmissions49. Transmission on death of joint proprietor

If one of two or more joint proprietors of any land, lease or charge dies, the Registrar shall, on proof of the death, delete the name of the deceased from the register by registration of the death certificate.

(2) The registration of any person as aforesaid shall relate back to and take effect from the date of the death of the proprietor.

52. Transmission on bankruptcy

- (b) register the copy of the resolution or order.

(2) An instrument executed by or on behalf of a company in liquidation delivered for registration after the appointment of the liquidator has been entered under subsection (1) shall be sealed with the common seal of the company and attested to by the liquidator or, in the case of a company not required by law to have a common seal, shall be signed by the liquidator whose signature shall be verified in accordance with the relevant law.

(3) As soon as practicable after a vesting order has been made under section 444 of the Insolvency Act, 2015, the liquidator shall lodge a copy of the order with the Registrar for registration under this Act.

PART VI – GENERAL PROVISIONS ON LEASES55. Application of this Part

(1) Unless otherwise provided in a lease instrument, the provisions of this Part shall apply to all leases, other than leases governed by legislation relating to community land.

(2) The parties to a lease made or coming into effect before the commencement of this Act may agree, in writing, to adopt or incorporate any of the provisions of this Part into that lease and any provisions adopted or incorporated shall, unless the agreement otherwise provides, become a part of the lease and shall be enforceable in every respect, with effect from the date of the agreement.

(3) In this Part, unless the context expressly or by implication renders it unfeasible, references to a lease include a sub-lease.

56. Power to lease land

Subject to the provisions of this Act, the owner of private land may—

- (a) ease that land or part of it to any person for a definite period or for the life of the lessor or of the lessee or for a period which though indefinite, may be terminated by the lessor or the lessee; and
- (b) subject the lease to any conditions that may be required by this Act or any other law or that the lessor may impose.

57. Periodic leases

(1) If in any lease—

- (a) the term of the lease is not specified and no provision is made for the giving of notice to terminate the tenancy, the lease shall be deemed to be a periodic lease;
- (b) the term is from week to week, month to month, year to year or any other periodic basis to which the rent is payable in relation to agricultural land the periodic lease shall be for six months;
- (c) the lessee remains in possession of land with the consent of the lessor after the term of the lease has expired, then—
 - (i) unless the lessor and lessee have agreed, expressly or by implication, that the continuing possession shall be for some other period, the lease shall be deemed to be a periodic one; and
 - (ii) all the terms and conditions of the lease that are consistent with the provisions of sub-paragraph (i) shall continue in force until the lease is terminated in accordance with this section.

(2) If the owner of land permits the exclusive occupation of the land or any part of it by any person at a rent but without any agreement in writing, that occupation shall be deemed to constitute a periodic tenancy.

(3) The periodic tenancy contemplated in subsection (1)(a) shall be the period by reference to which the rent is payable.

(4) A periodic tenancy may be terminated by either party giving notice to the other, the length of which shall be not less than the period of the tenancy and shall expire on one of the days on which rent is payable.

58. Short-term leases

(1) A short term lease is a lease—

- (a) made for a term of two years or less without an option for renewal;
- (b) that is a periodic lease; and
- (c) to which section 57(2) applies.

(2) A short term lease may be made orally or in writing.

(3) A short term lease is not a registrable interest in land.

59. Lease terminating on the occurrence of a future event

A lease that comes into operation after the date on which this Act comes into operation and that provides for its termination or permits notice of its termination to be given on the occurrence of a future event shall not be invalid provided that the event is sufficiently defined in the lease so as to be identified when it occurs.

60. Lessee remaining in possession after termination of lease without the consent of lessor

(1) If a lessee remains in possession of land without the consent of the lessor after the lease has been terminated or the term of the lease has expired, all the obligations of the lessee under the lease continue in force until such time as the lessee ceases to be in possession of the land.

(2) A lessor who accepts rent in respect of any period after the lease has been terminated or the term of the lease has expired, shall not, by reason of that fact, be deemed to have consented to the lessee remaining in possession of the land, or as having given up on any of the rights or remedies of the lessor against the lessee for breach of a covenant or condition of the lease, and if the lessor continues to accept rent from a tenant who remains in possession for two months, after the termination of the lease, a periodic lease from month to month shall be deemed to have come into force.

61. Future leases

(1) For the avoidance of doubt, a lease of land may be made for a term to begin on a future date, not being later than twenty-one years after the date on which the lease is executed.

(2) A future lease, which is expressed to be for a period of more than five years, shall be of no effect unless and until it is, registered.

62. Notice by co-owners

If a lease is entered into by—

- (a) two or more lessors as co-owners; or
- (b) two or more lessees as co-owners, and the lease is terminable by notice, the notice shall be given by and to all the co-owners, unless all the parties to the lease have, expressly or by implication, agreed otherwise.

63. Sublease for a term that is the same as or shorter than the term of the head lease

(1) This section shall apply to a sublease that comes into operation after the date of the commencement of this Act under which, a lessee enters or purports to enter into a sublease for a term that is to expire at the same time as or not later than, the expiry of the term of the head lease.

(2) A sublease to which this section applies shall not operate as an assignment of the head lease to the sub lessee, unless a contrary intention appears from the sublease or from the circumstances surrounding the granting of the sublease.

(3) The term of a sublease shall not be longer than the term of the head lease.

[Act No. 28 of 2016, s. 57]

64. Surrender to enable a new head lease to be entered into not to affect the sublease

(1) The surrender of a lease for the purpose of enabling a new lease to the same lessee to be entered into shall not require the surrender of any sublease in respect of the surrendered lease, if, on or before the date on which the term of the new head lease is to expire—

- (a) the term of the sublease is to expire; or

(b) in the case of a sublease that is a periodic tenancy, the sublease may be terminated by the giving of the specified period of notice of termination and the expiry of that period.

(2) A sublease preserved under subsection (1)—

(a) shall continue in force as though it had been entered into in respect of the new head lease; and

(b) all rights and obligations under the sublease, including those which relate to any period before the surrender of the head lease, shall continue to be enforceable, except to the extent that any such obligation is, by reason of the fact that a new head lease has been entered into, more onerous than it would have been had the original head lease not been surrendered.

(3) A sublease entered into in respect of a surrendered lease includes, for purposes of this section, any sublease entered into by a person deriving title through the lessee under the surrendered lease.

65. Covenants implied in a lease on part of the lessor

(1) In every lease, there shall be implied covenants by the lessor with the lessee, binding the lessor—

(a) that so long as the lessee pays the rent and observes and performs the covenants and conditions contained or implied in the lease to be observed and performed on the lessee's part, the lessee shall peaceably and quietly possess and enjoy the land leased during the term of the lease without any interruption from or by the lessor or any person rightfully claiming through the lessor;

(b) not to use or permit any adjoining or neighbouring land that the lessor owns or leases that would in any way render the leased land or any buildings on the leased land unfit or materially less fit for any purpose for which they may be used, consistent with the terms and conditions of the lease;

(c) if only part of a building is leased, to keep the roof, all external and main walls and main drains, and the common parts and common installations and facilities, including common passages and walkways in a proper state of repair;

(d) if any dwelling house, flat, or room is leased, that the house, flat or room is fit for human habitation at the commencement of the lease and shall be kept fit for human habitation during the lease;

(e) that if, the leased premises or any part of them are destroyed or damaged at any time—

(i) by fire, flood or explosion or other accident not attributable to the negligence of the lessee, or lessee's invitees or employees;

(ii) by civil commotion; or

(iii) by lightning, storm, earthquake, volcanic activity or other natural disaster, so as to make the leased premises or any part of it wholly or partially unfit for occupation or use, the rent and any contribution payable by the lessee to the outgoings on the premises or a just proportion of that rent of contribution according to the nature and extent of the damage sustained shall be suspended and cease to be payable until the leased premises have been, once more, rendered fit for occupation and use; and if the leased premises have not been rendered fit for occupation and use within six months after their destruction or damage, the lessee shall have the option to terminate the lease after giving one month's notice;

- (f) if it is an express or implied term of the lease that the leased land or a building on it may be used for any one specific purpose or purposes, the lessee may terminate the lease, on giving one month's notice to the lessor, if the land or building cannot be, or can no longer lawfully be, used for any of those purposes; and
- (g) to pay all rates, taxes, dues and other outgoings that are payable in respect of the leased land except to the extent otherwise specified in the lease.

(2) There shall be implied in every lease covenants by the lessee empowering the lessor to—

- (a) either personally or by agents, enter, the leased land or buildings at any reasonable time and upon giving a seven days' notice to the lessee for the purpose of inspecting the condition and repair of the premises, or for carrying out repairs and making good any defects that it is the lessor's obligation so to do; but in the exercise of that power, the lessor shall not unreasonably interfere with the occupation and use of the land and buildings by the lessee;
- (b) terminate the lease by serving a notice of intention to terminate the lease on the lessee where—
 - (i) any rent is unpaid for one month after the due date for payment, whether or not a demand, in writing, for payment has been made by the lessor or an agent of the lessor;
 - (ii) the lessee has failed for a period of one month, to observe or perform any condition, covenant or other term, the observation or performance of which has been assumed by the lessee expressly or impliedly in the lease.

[Act No. 28 of 2016, s. 58]

66. Conditions implied on leases on part of the lessee

(1) There shall be implied in every lease, covenants by the lessee with the lessor binding the lessee—

- (a) to pay the rent reserved by the lease at the times and in the manner specified in the lease;
- (b) to use any land in a sustainable manner and in accordance with any conditions imposed on the use of that land by the lease, or any written law or any provisions in a grant of a public land out of which that lease has been created and, in particular, not to cut down, injure or destroy any living tree on the land unless the purpose for which the land has been leased cannot be carried out without so doing;

- (c) to yield up the land and buildings in the same condition as they were when the term of the lease began, except that the lessee shall not be bound to repair damage or restore the land and buildings to the same conditions they were at the beginning of the lease if the damage or deterioration of the condition is caused by—
 - (i) reasonable wear and tear;

- (ii) fire, flood or explosion or other accident not attributable to the negligence of the lessee, or the lessee's invitees or employees;
- (iii) civil commotion;
- (iv) lightning, storm, earthquake, volcanic activity or other natural disaster;
- (d) to keep all boundary marks in repair; and
- (e) to keep all buildings comprised in the lease in a reasonable state of repair.

67. Consent by lessor to application by lessee under lease

(1) On and after the commencement of this Act, a covenant by the lessee not to take an action without the consent of the lessor shall be construed as requiring the lessor not unreasonably to withhold consent to the taking of that action by the lessee.

(2) If a lessee applies to the lessor for consent to—

- (a) transfer or assign the lease;
- (b) enter into a sublease;
- (c) part with possession of the leased land or buildings;
- (d) change the use of the land or buildings from a use which is permitted under the lease;
- (e) extend, improve, add on to or in any other way develop any building beyond what is permitted in the lease;
- (f) create a charge over the lease;
- (g) take any of the actions referred to in subparagraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (e); or
- (h) in relation to any part of the leased land or buildings, or for any part of the term of the lease, the lessor shall inform the lessee, in writing, within a reasonable time after receiving the application, whether the lessor is giving or refusing consent.

(3) Without limiting the generality of the lessor's obligation under subsection (1), consent is unreasonably withheld if the lessor as a condition of or in relation to the giving of consent—

- (a) requires the lessee to pay any money, by way of additional rent, or a premium or a fine or other consideration for the consent, other than the payment of the lessor's reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the giving of consent;
- (b) imposes on the lessee any unreasonable condition or precondition; or
- (c) the lessee has requested for consent to transfer or assign the lease or enter into a sublease, and the lessor objects to the gender or nationality or other personal characteristic of the transferee, assignee or sub-lessee, in circumstances that a reasonable person would consider those factors irrelevant to the granting of such consent.

(4) If the lessor refuses to give consent or gives consent subject to a condition or pre-condition and the lessee so requests, in writing, the lessor shall promptly inform the lessee, in writing, of the reasons for the refusal or for the imposition of the condition or pre-condition, as the case maybe.

(5) If the lessee or any person, to whom this section applies at the request of the lessee, has paid any money or suffered any loss in connection with subsection (3), that person may recover that money and seek damages for that loss from the lessor.

(6) This section shall not prevent the inclusion, in a lease, of a covenant binding the lessee absolutely not to take any action of the kind referred to in subsection (2).

68. Merger of lessor's interest not to affect remedies

If a sublessor surrenders the head lease to the owner or merges the head lease with the land out of which it was created, the owner of the land shall have all the same remedies against the sublessee for non-performance or non-observation of the covenants and conditions expressed or implied in the sublease and all the same rights to give notice of the termination of the sublessee to the subleases as the sublessor had before the surrendered or merged the head lease.

Transfer and Assignment of Leases

69. Burden and benefit of covenants to run with the reversion

(1) If the interest held by the lessor under a lease, the reversion, ceases to be so held by the lessor, whether by transfer, assignment, grant, operation of law or otherwise, then, unless a contrary intention, expressly or impliedly, appears from the lease, or from any other circumstance—

- (a) the obligations imposed on the lessor by covenant of the lease run with the reversion and may be enforced by the person who is from time to time entitled to the reversion;
- (b) the rights to the benefits of every covenant imposed on the lessee, that refers to the subject matter of the lease, may be exercised and enforced by the person who is from time to time entitled to the reversion against the person who is from time to time entitled to the lease.

(2) A person who becomes entitled to exercise a right to which subsection (1)(b) refers may exercise the right even if it first became exercisable or accrued before the time at which that person became so entitled unless before that time, the right was waived or the lessee was released from the obligation to which the right relates.

(3) If, in respect of a lease—

- (a) there has been a division of the reversion into different parts so that different persons are lessors of the different parts; or
- (b) the lease has terminated in relation to the part of the land comprised in the lease, the obligations referred to in subsection (1)(a) and the rights and remedies referred to in subsection (1)(b) shall be apportioned, and to the extent required by that apportionment, remain attached to each part of that reversion or to that part of the land in respect of which the lease has not been terminated as the case may require and may be enforced by the person entitled to enforce those obligations under subsection (1)(a) and exercised by the person entitled to exercise those rights and remedies under subsection (1)(b).

70. Effect of payment by lessee to assignor of reversion

(1) If a lessor has transferred or assigned the reversion, any payment by the lessee of any part of the rent or of any other money due under the lease to the transferor or assignor shall discharge the lessee to the extent of that payment unless the lessee had actual notice of the transfer or assignment before making the payment.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary in any other written law, the registration of a transfer of the reversion shall not, for purposes of subsection (1), in itself, be an actual notice to the lessee of the transfer.

71. Transferor or assignor of lease released from liability to pay rent and observe covenants thereafter

(1) In respect of any lease or any transfer or assignment of a lease or part of it made or coming into effect on or after the date of the commencement of this Act—

- (a) the rule of the common law that a transferor or assignor of a lease remains liable on the personal covenant to the lessor for payment of rent and for all breaches of covenants, notwithstanding that the transferor or assignor is no longer in possession or occupation of the leased land, shall cease to apply; and
- (b) the effect of a transfer or assignment of a lease is, as from that date, to discharge absolutely and without more the transferor or assignor from any obligation to pay rent or to observe any covenants in respect of the land as from the date of the transfer or assignment, whether the person to whom the lease has been transferred or assigned is in or goes immediately into occupation or possession of the land so transferred or assigned.

(2) As long as the transferor or assignor remains in occupation of the leased land and notwithstanding the transfer or assignment, that transferor or assignor shall remain liable to pay rent and comply with all the covenants as if the person were still the lessee for as long as the person shall remain in occupation.

(3) Subsection (1) shall not absolve a transferor or assignor of a lease from any obligation to pay rent or remedy and breach of a covenant that accrued or arose during the term of the lease when that transferor or assignor was bound by all the covenants in that lease and the lessor may enforce all such obligations of that lease that have so accrued or arisen against that transferor or assignor notwithstanding that the lease has been transferred or assigned.

(4) As from the date of the commencement of this Act—

- (a) the rule of common law that a lessee remains liable to pay rent and comply with all the covenants notwithstanding that the lessee has, with the agreement of the lessor, vacated the leased land before the date for the termination of the lease, shall cease to apply; and
- (b) subsection (5) shall forthwith apply.

(5) A lessee who, with the agreement of the lessor, vacates land before the termination of a lease shall remain liable to pay rent and observe all the covenants in the lease for one year from the date on which the lessee vacates the land or buildings, unless the lease provides expressly for a shorter period, and if the lessor leases that land or any buildings to another person before the end of one year, the provisions of subsection (1) shall apply, with effect from the date of the execution of that lease.

(6) Subsection (1) shall not absolve a lessee to whom subsection (5) applies, from any obligation to pay rent or remedy a breach of a covenant that accrued or arose during the term of the lease when that lessee was bound by all the covenants in that lease and the lessor may enforce all such obligations of that lease that have accrued or arisen against that lessee notwithstanding the fact that the lessee has vacated the land.

(7) The provisions of subsections (1) and (5) shall apply in a similar manner to the transfer, or assignment of a lease of a part of the leased land and to the vacating of a part of the leased land as they apply to the transfer of assignment of the lease of all the land and the vacating of all the land comprised in the lease.

(8) Any term expressed or implied in a lease or in a condition or covenant in a lease that is in conflict with this section shall be void.

72. Transferor or assignee as lessee

(1) A person who accepts a transfer or assignment of a lease shall become the lessee and shall be required to—

- (a) acknowledge the lessor as such;
- (b) take possession of the land or building that is the subject of the lease.

(2) A person to whom this section applies who becomes a lessee—

- (a) shall pay the lessor the rent payable under the lease;
- (b) shall observe and perform all the covenants on the part of the lessee expressed or implied in the lease; and
- (c) may enforce all covenants made by and binding on the lessor expressed or implied in the lease.

[Act No. 28 of 2016, s. 59]

Remedies and Relief

73. Lessor's right of forfeiture

(1) Subject to the provisions of section 76 and to any provisions to the contrary in the lease, the lessor shall have the right to forfeit the lease if the lessee—

- (a) commits any breach of, or omits to perform, any agreement or condition on his part expressed or implied in the lease; or
- (b) is adjudicated bankrupt; or
- (c) being a company, goes into liquidation.

(2) The right of forfeiture may be—

- (a) exercised, where neither the lessee nor any person claiming through or under him is in occupation of the land, by entering upon and remaining in possession of the land; or
- (b) enforced by action in the court.

(3) The acceptance by the lessor of any rent after the service of a notice of forfeiture under section 75 does not operate as a waiver of the lessor's right of forfeiture unless the lessor has by any other positive act shown an intention to treat the lease as subsisting.

74. Effect of forfeiture on subleases

The forfeiture of a lease determines every sublease and every other interest appearing in the register relating to that lease, but—

- (a) where the forfeiture is set aside by the court on the grounds that it was procured by the lessor in fraud of the sublessee; or
- (b) where the court grants relief against the forfeiture under section 76, every such sublease and other interest shall be deemed not to have determined.

75. Notice before forfeiture

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the lease, no lessor shall be entitled to exercise the right of forfeiture for the breach of any agreement or condition in the lease, whether expressed or implied, until the lessor has served on the lessee a notice of not less than thirty days—

- (a) specifying the particular breach complained of; and
- (b) if the breach is capable of remedy, requiring the lessee to remedy the breach within such reasonable period as is specified in the notice; and
- (c) in any case other than non-payment of rent, requiring the lessee to make compensation in money for the breach, and the lessee has failed to remedy the breach within thirty days thereafter, if it is capable of remedy, and to make reasonable compensation in money.

76. Relief against forfeiture

97. Duty of chargee exercising power of sale

(1) A chargee who exercises a power to sell the charged land, including the exercise of the power to sell in pursuance of an order of a court, owes a duty of care to the chargor, any guarantor of the whole or any part of the sums advanced to the chargor, any chargee under a subsequent charge or under a lien to obtain the best price reasonably obtainable at the time of sale.

(2) A chargee shall, before exercising the right of sale, ensure that a forced sale valuation is undertaken by a valuer.

(3) If the price at which the charged land is sold is twenty-five per centum or below the market value at which comparable interests in land of the same character and quality are being sold in the open market—

- (a) there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the chargee is in breach of the duty imposed by subsection (1); and
- (b) the chargor whose charged land is being sold for that price may apply to a court for an order that the sale be declared void, but the fact that a plot of charged land is sold by the chargee at an undervalue being less than twenty-five per centum below the market value shall not be taken to mean that the chargee has complied with the duty imposed by subsection (1).

(4) It shall not be a defence to proceedings against a chargee for breach of the duty imposed by subsection (1) that the chargee was acting as agent of or under a power of attorney from the chargor or any former chargor.

(5) A chargee shall not be entitled to any compensation or indemnity from the chargor, any former chargor or any guarantor in respect of any liability arising from a breach of the duty imposed by subsection (1).

(6) The sale by a prescribed chargee of any community land occupied by a person shall conform to the law relating to community land save that such a sale shall not require any approval from a Community Land Committee.

(7) Any attempt by a chargee to exclude all or any of the provisions of this section in any charge instrument or any agreement collateral to a charge or in any other way shall be void.

98. Powers incidental to the power of sale

(1) If a chargee or a receiver becomes entitled to exercise the power of sale, that sale may be—

- (a) of the whole or part of the charged land;
- (b) subject to or free of any charge or other encumbrance or charge having priority to the chargee's charge;
- (c) by way of subdivision or otherwise;
- (d) by private contract at market value;
- (e) public auction with reserve price;
- (f) for a purchase price payable in one sum or by installments; or
- (g) subject to any other conditions that the chargee shall think fit, having due regard to the duty imposed by section 97(1).

(2) If a sale is to proceed by public auction, it shall be the duty of the chargee to ensure that the sale is publicly advertised in such a manner and form as to bring it to the attention of persons likely to be interested in bidding for the charged land and that the provisions relating to auctions and tenders for land are, as near as may be, followed in respect of that sale.

(3) A transfer of the charged land by a chargee in exercise of the power of sale shall be made in the prescribed form and the Registrar shall accept it as sufficient evidence that the power has been duly exercised.

(4) Upon registration of the land or lease or other interest in land sold and transferred by the chargee the interest of the chargor as described therein shall pass to and vest in the purchaser free of all liability on account of the charge, or on account of any other charge or encumbrance to which the charge has priority, other than a lease easement to which the chargee had consented in writing.

(5) In a sale by a private contract, the chargee shall be entitled to rely on a valuation carried out by a valuer who is registered with the institute of Surveyors of Kenya and the report shall in the absence of a manifest error, be conclusive in relation to the market price:

Provided that the valuation report shall at the time of sale be not more than six months old.

(6) A transfer by charge shall have priority over all entries made after the transfer of the charge undertaking the sale and the chargee shall stand discharged upon the registration of the transfer.

(7) Where it is noted in the register that a second charge by the chargor ranks pari passu to the charge submitting the transfer, the instrument of transfer by the charge shall include a duly executed consent of the charge with a pari passu charge consenting to the sale.

(8) For the purposes of this section, land, a lease, or a charge shall be deemed to have been sold when a bid has been accepted at the auction sale.

(9) If at any time the charger is entitled to and wishes to repay the money secured by the charge, and the charge is absent, cannot be found or if the registrar is satisfied that the charge cannot be discharged otherwise, the chargor may deposit the amount due with the Court, in trust, for the person entitled to the money, and after which the obligations of the charger under the charge shall cease.

(10) Upon the deposit referred to in subsection (9), the Registrar shall cancel the registration of the charge and the Court shall pay the amount deposited to the chargee if the charge applies for it within six years of the deposit, and where the chargee does not apply for the amount within the stated period, it shall be deposited with the Unclaimed Financial Assets Authority as an unclaimed asset.

[Act No. 28 of 2016, s. 74]

99. Protection of purchaser

(1) This section applies to—

- (a) a person who purchases charged land from the chargee or receiver, except where the chargee is the purchaser; or
- (b) a person claiming the charged land through the person who purchases charged land from the chargee or receiver, including a person claiming through the chargee if the chargee and the person so claiming obtained the charged land in good faith and for value.

(2) A person to whom this section applies—

- (a) is not answerable for the loss, misapplication or non-application of the purchase money paid for the charged land;
- (b) is not obliged to see to the application of the purchase price;
- (c) is not obliged to inquire whether there has been a default by the chargor or whether any notice required to be given in connection with the exercise of the power of sale has been duly given or whether the sale is otherwise necessary, proper or regular.

(3) A person to whom this section applies is protected even if at any time before the completion of the sale, the person has actual notice that there has not been a default by the chargor, or that a notice has been duly served or that the sale is in some way, unnecessary, improper or irregular, except in the case of fraud, misrepresentation or other dishonest conduct on the part of the chargee, of which that person has actual or constructive notice.

(4) A person prejudiced by an unauthorised, improper or irregular exercise of the power of sale shall have a remedy in damages against the person exercising that power.

100. Purchase by chargee

(1) Other than in the circumstances provided to in subsection (3), a chargee exercising the power of sale may, with leave of the Court, purchase the property.

(2) A court shall not grant leave unless the chargee satisfies the court that a sale of the charged land to the chargee is the most advantageous way of selling the land so as to comply with the duty imposed on the chargee by section 97(1).

(3) If the charged land is to be sold by public auction, the chargee may bid for and purchase the charged land at that public auction so long as the price bid for the charged land by the chargee is the greater of—

- (a) the highest price bid for that land at the auction; and
- (b) an amount equal to or higher than the reserve price, if any, put upon the land before the auction, whichever amount is the greater.

(4) If a chargee who has sold charged land to the chargee applies to the Registrar to be registered as the lawful owner of land under a land or lease, the Registrar may require that chargee to provide any evidence that the Registrar may specify showing that the provisions of this section have been complied with and the Registrar shall not be obliged to register any such land or lease until the chargee has so satisfied the Registrar.

101. Application of proceeds of sale of charged land

The purchase money received by a chargee who has exercised the power of sale shall be applied in the following order of priority—

- (a) first, in payment of any rates, rents, taxes, charges or other sums owing and required to be paid on the charged land;
- (b) second, in discharge of any prior charge or other encumbrance subject to which the sale was made;
- (c) third, in payment of all costs and reasonable expenses properly incurred and incidental to the sale or any attempted sale;
- (d) fourth, in discharge of the sum advanced under the charge or so much of it as remains outstanding, interests, costs and all other money due under the charge, including any money advanced to a receiver in respect of the charged land under section 92; and
- (e) fifth, in payment of any subsequent charges in order of their priority, and the residue, if any, of the money so received shall be paid to the person who, immediately before the sale, was entitled to discharge the charge.

102. Right of chargor to discharge charge on payment of any sum due any time before sale

(1) At any time before the charged land is sold, or withdrawn from sale, the chargor or any other person entitled to discharge the charge may discharge the charge in whole or in part by paying to the chargee all money secured by the charge at the time of payment.

(2) If payment is made under subsection (1), the chargee shall deliver to the chargor—

- (a) a discharge of the charge in the prescribed form over the whole or that part of the charged land to which the payment relates; and
- (b) all instruments and documents of title held by the chargee in connection with the charged land.

(3) An application for relief may be made at any time after the service of a notice under section 90(1), section 91(2), section 94(1), section 95(1), or during the exercise of any of the remedies contemplated in those sections.

(4) An application for relief is not to be taken as an admission by the chargor or any other person applying for relief that—

- (a) there has been a breach of a covenant of the charge by the chargor;
- (b) by reason of such a breach, the chargee has the right to exercise the remedy in respect of which the application for relief has been made;
- (c) all notices that were required to be served by the chargee were properly served; or
- (d) the period for remedying the breach specified in the notice served under section 90 was reasonable or had expired, and the court may grant relief without determining all or any of the matters described in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) or (d).

[Act No. 28 of 2016, s. 75, Act No. 19 of 2015, s. 178]

104. Power of the court in respect of remedies and reliefs

(1) In considering whether to grant relief as applied for, a court—

- (a) shall, have regard to whether the remedy which the chargee proposes to exercise is reasonably necessary to prevent any or any further reduction in the value of the charged land or to reverse any such reduction as has already occurred if the charged land consists of agricultural land or commercial premises, and the remedy proposed is to appoint a receiver, or to take possession of or lease the land or a part thereof;
- (b) shall, where the charged land consists of or includes, a dwelling-house, and the remedy proposed is to appoint a receiver, or take possession or lease the dwelling house or a part of it, have regard to the effect that the appointment of a receiver or the taking of possession or leasing the whole or a part of the dwelling house would have on the occupation of the dwelling house by the chargor and dependants and if the effect would be to impose undue disturbance on those owners, whether it is satisfied that—
 - (i) the chargee has made all reasonable efforts, including the use of other available remedies, to induce the chargor to comply with the obligations under the charge; and
 - (ii) the chargor has persistently been in default of the obligations under the charge; and
 - (iii) if the sale is of land held for a customary land, the chargee has had regard to the age, means, and circumstance including the health and number of dependants of the chargor, and in particular whether—

(aa) the chargor will be rendered landless or homeless;

(bb) the chargor will have any alternative means of providing for the chargor and dependants;

- (iv) it is necessary to sell the charged land in order to enable the chargee to recover the money owing under the charge;
- (v) in all the circumstances, it is reasonable to approve, or as the case may be, to make the order to sell the charged land.

(2) A court may refuse to grant an order under subsection (1) or may grant any relief against the operation of a remedy that the circumstances of the case require and without limiting the generality of those powers, may—

- (a) cancel, vary, suspend or postpone the order for any period which the court thinks reasonable;
- (b) extend the period of time for compliance by the chargor with a notice served under section 90;
- (c) substitute a different remedy or the one applied for or proposed by the chargee or a different time for taking or desisting from taking any action specified by the lessor in a notice served under section 90;
- (d) authorise or approve the remedy applied for or proposed by the chargee, notwithstanding that some procedural errors took place during the making of any notices served in connection with that remedy if the court is satisfied that—
 - (i) the chargor or other person applying for relief was made fully aware of the action required to be taken under or in connection with the remedy; and
 - (ii) no injustice will be done by authorising or approving the remedy, and may authorise or approve that remedy on any conditions as to expenses, damages, compensation or any other relevant matter as the court thinks fit.

(3) If under the terms of a charge, the chargor is entitled or is to be permitted to pay the principal sum secured by the charge by installments or otherwise to defer payment of it in whole or in part but provision is also made in the charge instrument or any collateral agreement for earlier payment of the whole sum in the event of any default by the chargor or of a demand by the chargee or otherwise, then for purposes of this section the court may treat as due under the charge in respect of the principal sum secured and of interest on it only the amounts that the chargor would have expected to be required to pay if there had been no such provision for earlier payment.

(4) A court may at any time before the charged property is sold refuse to authorise or approve a remedy if it appears to the court that—

- (a) the default in issue has been remedied;
- (b) the threat to the security has been removed;
- (c) the chargor has taken the steps that the chargor was required to take by the notice served under section 90; and
- (d) the chargee has taken or attempted to take some action against the chargor in contravention of section 90(4).

[Act No. 28 of 2016, s. 76]

- (i) to enforce the charge; or
 - (ii) to commence an action under section 90; or
 - (b) on an application by the chargor for relief against the exercise by the chargee of any remedy in connection with a default by the chargor under a charge; or
 - (c) on an application by the Registrar in respect of—
 - (i) charges provided by one or more specific chargees where there is prima facie evidence of a pattern of unfair dealing and practices by that chargee or those chargees; or
 - (ii) a chargee, being a corporate body, that appears to exercise discrimination against chargors on account of their gender, or by refusing to grant charges to persons on account of their gender except that a chargee, being a corporate body that is implementing any programme, approved or assisted by the national or county governments, designed to assist women to improve their economic and social position by providing them with advances secured by a charge of land shall not be taken to be acting in discriminatory manner if the advances under that programme are made only to women.
- (2) In re-opening the charge, the court may—
- (a) direct that the charge shall have effect subject to modifications that the court shall order;
 - (b) require the chargee to repay the whole or part of any sum paid under the charge or any related or collateral agreement by the chargor or any guarantor or other person who assumed an obligation under the charge whether it was paid to the chargee or any other person;
 - (c) require the chargee to pay any compensation to the chargor which the court shall think fit; or
 - (d) direct the chargee, being a corporate body to cease acting in a discriminatory manner with respect to the granting of charges.
- (3) In considering whether to exercise the powers conferred on it by this section, the court shall have regard to—
- (a) the age, gender, experience, understanding of commercial transaction, and health of the chargor at the time when the charge was created, if the chargor is an individual;
 - (b) the financial standing and resources of the chargor relative to those of the chargee at the time of the creation of the charge;
 - (c) the degree to which, at the time of the creation of the charge, the chargor was under financial pressure and the nature of that pressure;
 - (d) the interest rates prevailing at the time of the creation of the charge and during the continuation of the charge and the relationship of those interest rates to the interest rate applying from time to time in the charge;
 - (e) the degree of risk accepted by the chargee, having regard to the value of the charged land and the financial standing and other resources of the chargor;

- (f) the importance of not undermining the confidence of reputable chargees in the market for charges; and
- (g) any other factors that the court considers relevant.

- (b) the increase in the value of the land as at the date of publication of the notice of intention to acquire it is likely to accrue from the use to which the land will be put when acquired;
- (c) the increase in the value of the land is occasioned by any development or improvement to the land if—
 - (i) the improvement was made on the land within two years prior to the date of publication in the Gazette of the notice of intention to acquire the land, unless it is proved that the improvement was made bona fide and not in contemplation of proceedings for the acquisition of the land:
